

Celebrating The Life Of

Revelations 21

He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and there will be no more death or sorrow, or crying, or pain. All these things are gone forever.

Acknowledgement

The families of Christopher and Qiana Abercrombie wishes to acknowledge with heartfelt and deep appreciation the generous donations, comforting messages, visits and prayers and many other expressions of loving kindness shown during our time of bereavement.

Arrangements Entrusted To:

WALLACE & SONS FUNERAL SERVICE
(Inside Woodruff Funeral Home)
16774 Dixie Highway Hazel Crest, IL 60429
Office: (708) 335-0116 • Cell (773) 406-3547
Lamont J. Wallace, Funeral Director Yolanda A. Wallace, President

QIANA
T. HALL
November 10, 1986
September 27, 2025

CHRISTOPHER
LOVELL ABERCRUMBIE
January 1, 1987
September 26, 2025

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2025

Wake: 10:00

Funeral: 11:00 AM

?

10201 South Union
Chicago, IL

In Loving Memory of Christopher Lovell Abercumbie

January 1, 1987 - September 26, 2025

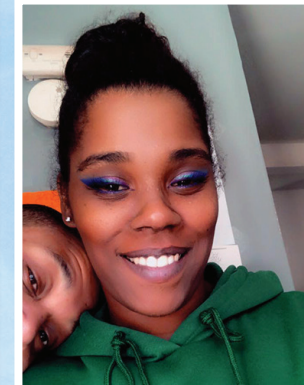

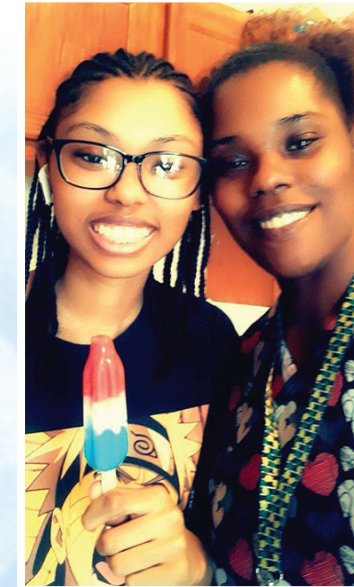

Christopher Lovell Abercumbie was born on January 1, 1987 in Chicago, IL. to Wanda Abercumbie and Larry Gardner who both preceded him in death. Laura Abercumbie, Christopher's Aunt adopted Christopher when he was 8 years old along with his sister's Andrea Abercumbie who preceded him in death and Jessica Abercumbie.

Christopher went to Coles Elementary School and went on to graduate from Bowen High School where he received his High School Diploma. After high school he worked several jobs, including UPS. Christopher met Qiana Hall, (deceased) during Grammer school and they later married and raised seven beautiful children.

Christopher was a funny, loving, and caring man who loved being a father, barbecuing on the grill, spending time with his children, family, and friends. His grandmother Lorraine Abercumbie who he loved dearly also preceded him in death. Christopher was always there whenever his grandmother needed him.

Christopher departed this life on September 26, 2025. Christopher leaves to cherish his precious memories his children Christopher, Tenaj, Zahra, Faith, Ya'Khira, Nashawn, and Amir. His mother Laura Abercumbie, his sisters Jessica and Kimberly, and his sister-in-law Tameika. Siblings on his father's side, Felicia, Larry, and Shannon. His nephews Darius and Deonte. Three Aunts, Beatrice, Diane and Liane (Uncle Johnny). Uncle Richard, and Uncle Phillip (Big Phil). Nieces Makayla, and Rickiyah. The Perry family, and a host of cousins, family and friends.

In Loving Memory of Qiana T. Hall

November 10th, 1986 – September 27th, 2025

Qiana T. Abercumbie was born on November 10, 1986, in Chicago, Illinois, to Freddie Hall and Janet Hall. From a young age, she radiated a bright spirit and a deep love for her family. Her fondest memories were shaped by the time spent with loved ones singing, laughing, and cherishing the simple joys of togetherness.

Qiana graduated from Carroll-Rosenwald Elementary School and attended Bogan High School. Later, she earned her GED, a testament to her perseverance and dedication to self-improvement and building a better future.

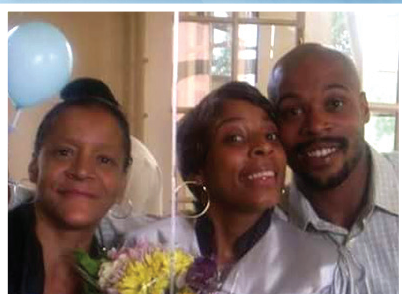

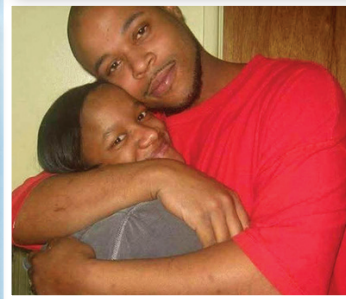

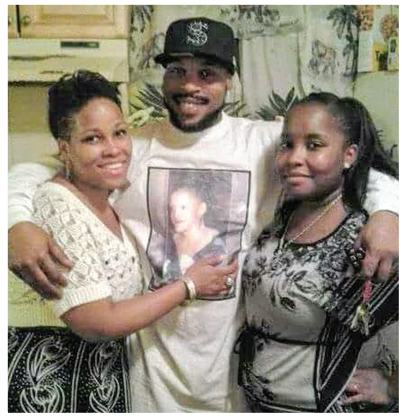

A devoted daughter, sister, and mother, Qiana carried within her an unyielding love for her family and a strong desire to provide a better life for them. Her compassionate heart, infectious laughter, and ability to make those around her feel valued are qualities that defined her. Alongside her beloved husband, Christopher, she embarked on a journey to create a brighter future for their children. She also lovingly cared for her mother during her time of need.

On Saturday, September 27th, 2025, Qiana departed this life, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories that will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew her.

Qiana was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Christopher; her grandparents, S.M. Harris, Anner Hall, and James Hall; and her siblings, Vincent, Isaac, Anthony, and Adrien.

She is lovingly remembered by her parents, Freddie and Janet Hall; her siblings, Tameika Harris, Freddie Jones, and Fredric Harris; her children, Ya'Khira Hall, Nashawn Purifory, Amir Anthony Lackland, Tenaj Abercumbie, Christopher Abercumbie, Zahra Abercumbie, and Faith-Lynn Abercumbie; as well as her nieces and nephews, JaDavian, Taiyon, Chala, Freddie, Shantell, Alex, Jamarion, Numonie, Maurice, Arcese, Ravel, Charles, Jayden, Sulek, and six great-nieces and great-nephews. Additionally, she is survived by a host of family, friends, and loved ones whose lives she touched and who will carry her memory forward.

"In honor of Qiana's memory, may we always extend kindness and compassion to one another."

Isaiah 57:1-2 (NLT)

Good people pass away; the godly often are before their time.

...God is protecting them from the evil to come.

For those who godly paths will rest in peace

Order Of Service

Processional Elder Hall
Scripture and Prayer Rev. Leslie Sanders
Musical Selection Lynell Harris
Resolutions.....
Remarks..... 2 minutes)
Reading of Christopher's Obituary.....Kimberly Abercumbie
Reading of Qiana's Obituary.....Kenyetta Lee
Eulogy and words of comfort Elder Hall

Repast immediately following Memorial Service

In Loving Memory Mom and Dad

Miss you so much Mom and Dad. Softly out of the shadows, there came a gentle call, you both took the hand God offered and quietly left us all, and although we cannot hold either of you, we will never let you go, because in our hearts you both will live forever, because we loved you so.

Love, Ya'Khira, Nashawn, Amir, Tenaj, Chris, Zahra, and Faith.

A Message To Our Children

*When the day comes that there are no more tomorrows for us, one of our biggest regrets will be not being able to be there at your side should you all need us. Our wish for you then will always be that your lives are long and healthy and that you'll follow your dreams where ever they may lead. When you look back and we are but a memory we pray that you'll remember that You were, are, and always will be deeply loved by us.
Love, Mom and Dad*

My Precious Ya'Khira, Nashawn, Amire, Tenaj, Christopher, Zora, and Faith,

From the very first moment I held each of you, my heart was forever yours. You are my greatest joy and the most beautiful part of my life. If you are reading this, please hold this truth close: my love for you is endless, and nothing that has happened is your fault. My struggles were my own, but you were always my light.

Ya'Khira, keep your gentle spirit.

Nashawn, hold on to your strength.

Amir, never lose your curiosity.

Tenaj, your heart is so big—guard it, but don't hide it.

Christopher, you are brave and kind.

Zahra, your smile can brighten any room.

Faith-Lynn, your name is your gift—hold tight to it.

You each carry a piece of me, and I am proud of you. Please hold onto one another. Take care of each other. Live with courage. Dream big. Love deeply. My prayer is that you will always know how precious you are, how chosen you are, and how much purpose God has placed in each of you.

Even though I am no longer with you physically, my love surrounds you and will never fade. In your happiest moments, in your darkest days, remember: I am proud of you, I believe in you, and I love you beyond measure.

With all my heart, Mom